Breaches of the Code of Conduct – Reporting and Resolution

Port Credit Lawn Bowling Club, through its Code of Conduct Committee, (consisting of the President, one additional BOD member and a good standing volunteer member) reserves the right to make decisions and enforce fair and reasonable measures following a breach of the Code of Conduct.

Any breach of the Code of Conduct must be reported to the BOD and the code of conduct committee will fully investigate the matter in a calm, honest and dignified manner and every effort should be made by all concerned to maintain confidentiality.

If, following an investigation and having considered all relevant circumstances it is concluded that a breach has occurred, then the Code of Conduct Committee shall take what it deems to be appropriate action in line with the club's Disciplinary Procedure. This may include issuing a formal reprimand in writing, a temporary suspension of club membership or fully revoking club membership.

In the case of non-members, action may include a ban from club premises for a set period of time or for life.

Any breach of Criminal Law shall be referred to the Police.
